

INVITATION

China South Africa Investment Co-operation Seminar

Balmoral Hotel, Durban Beachfront

South Africa will host the fifth BRICS Summit at the Nkosi Albert Luthuli International Convention Centre between 25 - 27 March 2013. This represents spheres of political and entrepreneurial coordination, in which member countries have identified several business opportunities, economic complementarities and areas of cooperation. BRICS is an acronym for the powerful grouping of the world's leading emerging economies, namely Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa. The BRICS mechanism aims to achieve peace, security, development and cooperation. It also seeks to contribute significantly to the development of humanity and establish a more equitable and fair world.

You are hereby invited to join the China South Africa Investment Cooperation Seminar where over 50 executives of top companies and potential investors from the Peoples Republic of China will be available to engage with project promoters seeking partnership, trade and investment opportunities.
